DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971 just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduating with an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery began his career in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as marketing director and then director of sales before becoming executive vice president after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to chief operating officer in 1992. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as co-general partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team. On June 20, 1997 he succeeded Bill Giles as general partner, president and chief executive officer.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has moved to Citizens Bank Park, which opened in April of 2004. Under his leadership, the Phillies constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Fla., with the 2004 opening of Bright House Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 40 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently vice chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties) and is a member of MLB's Executive Council. In addition, he serves on the board of MLB Network. Montgomery is also a member of MLB's Schedule Committee and Labor Policy Committee and recently was asked to serve on the newly formed Commissioner's Special Committee for On-Field Matters.

Locally, Montgomery remains an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a trustee. He currently serves on the university's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. He is a past member and former chair of the policy board of WXPN Radio -- 88.5FM, the university's member-supported radio station. In October 2009 Montgomery received the Penn Alumni Award of Merit in recognition of his dedication and service to the university.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery is the current chairman of the Philadelphia Sports Congress and also serves on the board of Need in Deed, a nonprofit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools. He is a past board chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, Pa.

In February 2007, Montgomery was one of Need in Deed's 20th Anniversary honorees in recognition of his many years of service on the organization's board. PAL presented Montgomery and the Phillies with the Police Athletic League Award in May 2008 in appreciation of his and the ballclub's longtime support of PAL and commitment to Philadelphia youth. In June 2009 Montgomery and the Phillies received the Vision for Philadelphia Award from Philadelphia Hospitality. In 2011 he will serve as an honorary co-chair along with H.F. "Gerry" Lenfest for the Campaign for Children's Scholarship Fund Philadelphia. Montgomery also serves as a co-chair of the annual "Get in the Game" fundraiser for Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students achieve their dream of a college education.

Under Montgomery's leadership, the Phillies continue to broaden their community outreach, supporting hundreds of charities and non-profit groups through contributions and other assistance provided by Phillies Charities, Inc., the club's charitable arm. Two keystones of the Phillies' charitable endeavors are the Phillies Phestival, held each season in support of the ALS Association – Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and the annual Phillies Holiday Dinner, prepared and served by front office staff, at the Bethesda Project's "Our Brother's Place," a homeless facility in North Philadelphia.

The ballclub is also very active on the education front with the sponsorship of "Be A Phanatic About Reading" and Phillies Phundamentals, youth programs aimed at combining fun and learning with baseball. In addition, Philadelphia's boys and girls are learning about the game and playing baseball through the Phillies-sponsored RBI and Rookie League programs.

Montgomery was born on June 26, 1946, and grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of the William Penn Charter School (1964) where he received the Alumni Award of Merit in 2005 and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife Lyn make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa, and one granddaughter, Elizabeth.

OWNERSHIP

The Phillies is a limited partnership formed in 1981. None of the longtime partners owns as much as 50% of the partnership. David Montgomery is the general partner, with complete management authority.

EXECUTIVES

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and president of the National League (1951-69). Giles spent much of his childhood with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati and got his first job in baseball as a teenager doing all kinds of odds and ends in the Reds' Public Relations Department.

From that inauspicious beginning, Giles went on to establish his own impressive baseball career. He has held various positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia, and served on numerous committees in baseball while being one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently chairman of the Phillies, Giles was appointed honorary National League president early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. His appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony to his stature in the game. In January 2010, he was given the Bud Selig Executive Leadership Award for lifetime achievement in baseball from the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. Giles is also a member of the Veterans Committee of baseball's Hall of Fame.

Following graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as traveling secretary, publicity director, director of public relations and promotions and vice president. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as vice president, business operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to executive vice president.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained president of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as honorary president of the National League, a role in which he represents the NL at the All-Star Game and postseason play.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: chairman emeritus of the board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past president of the Boy Scouts of America and the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education; on the boards of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Police Athletic League and Salvation Army; and a member of the Union League, Rotary Club and the visitors boards of the Temple University Medical School and Temple University Journalism School.

He has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc.; the American Heart Association's Man of the Year; the Team Leadership Award from the Tug McGraw Foundation (2006); Crescent Award from Rosemont College (2010) and Man of the Year by Chamounix (2010).

Born in Rochester, N.Y., on September 7, 1934, Giles resides in Villanova, Pa., with his wife Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael and his wife Nanette have twins, daughter Lowell (Lowie) and son William (Will). Joe and his wife Paula have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren.

Giles recently wrote a book about his baseball career currently available in most bookstores and online entitled Pouring Six Beers at a Time: And Other Stories from a Lifetime in Baseball.

DAVID BUCK
Senior Vice President, Marketing and Advertising Sales

David Buck, a lifelong Phillies fan with over 20 years of experience with the club, was promoted to senior vice president, marketing and advertising sales, in February of 2007. In this role, David oversees the Phillies marketing department, encompassing advertising sales, events, fan development, broadcasting, video services, advertising, merchandising and promotions.

Prior to his promotion, David was vice president of advertising sales for eight seasons. He oversaw the transition from Veterans Stadium to Citizens Bank Park from a sponsorship perspective, and helped conceive and implement the strategy of bringing all advertising elements (television, radio, signage, print and promotions) under the control of the Phillies. Additionally, David led the club's team that secured the 25-year naming rights partnership with Citizens Bank.

Born on May 15, 1964, in Abington, Pa., David attended Springfield High School and graduated from Lafayette College in 1986 with a BA in history. He stays connected to Lafayette by hosting students each offseason in an externship program. He also spent 10 years as an elected trial judge in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County and 12 years as a trial attorney and supervisor in the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, the last two of which he served as first assistant district attorney.

Michael, who was born on January 1, 1946, in Philadelphia, obtained his undergraduate degree in political science from the University of Pennsylvania and his law degree, with honors, from Villanova University School of Law. He is the past chairperson of the Woodlynde School Board of Directors, and a former member of the board of directors of United Way for Southeastern Pennsylvania. He presently serves as a member of the board of trustees of Thomas Jefferson University and as a member of the executive board for the Committee of Seventy.

RICHARD DEATS

Vice President, Phillies Enterprises

Richard Deats assumed the title of vice president, Phillies Enterprises on February 1, 2007.

He joined the Phillies in 1974 as a ticket office representative after spending five years as a teacher and coach at Germantown Academy. Richard worked in the ticket office for two years until being named director of group sales in January 1976. In 1982 he assumed responsibility for season tickets and was made sales director and in 1987 he added ticket operations to his responsibilities and title. He was named vice president of ticket sales and operations in January of 1992 and oversaw the sale, production and delivery of all Phillies tickets until the end of the 2006 season, which included 1993, the first year in Phillies history with attendance of over 3 million, and 2004, which was the opening of Citizens Bank Park.

During the construction of Citizens Bank Park, Richard worked with Ewing Cole and HOK as the design liaison for the Phillies and it was during this time that he began transitioning to his current position in which he represents the Phillies in many of their business relationships.

In 2008 he was honored for his contributions to the club with the Richie Ashburn Special Achievement Award, given to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated loyalty, dedication and passion for the game. BASEBALL PERSONNEL

RUBEN AMARO JR.

Senior Vice President & General Manager

Ruben Amaro Jr. was named senior vice president & general manager on November 3, 2008, after 10 years as assistant GM under Pat Gillick (2006-08) and Ed Wade (1999-2005).

In 2010, his second year as GM, Ruben oversaw a team that had the best record (97-65) in the major leagues for the first time in Phillies history and played in the National League Championship Series for the third straight year.

In his first year as GM, the Phillies won the National League pennant, making it to the seventh World Series in club history, and the team's 93 wins were the most in 16 years (97 wins in 1993). Following the season, Ruben was named Executive of the Year by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association (PSWA) and the Phillies were honored as both the Team of the Year by the PSWA and Organization of the Year by Baseball America.

Adhering to an old-school philosophy that pitching and defense wins games, in his first two years on the job, Ruben acquired via trade and free agency four 20-game winners – Pedro Martinez, Cliff Lee (twice), Roy Halladay and Roy Oswalt. Three of the four – Martinez, Lee and Halladay – combined for six Cy Young Awards.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Ruben was a batboy for the Phillies from 1980-83 when his father, Ruben Sr., a former shortstop with the club, was first base coach. He is a 1983 graduate of the William Penn Charter School, where he played both baseball and soccer. In 1987, he earned a BS degree in human biology from Stanford University and was a member of the 1987 NCAA Baseball Championship team.

After being selected by the Angels in the 11th round of the 1987 draft, Ruben made his major league debut with the club in 1991. Following that season, he was traded to his hometown Phillies, where he spent five of his final seven big league seasons (1992-93, 96-98). His only time away was 1994-95, when he played for Cleveland. Ruben played for both the 1993 NL Champion Phillies and the 1995 AL Champion Indians. In 1996, he ranked third among NL pinch-hitters with a .387 average. Following the 1998 season, his last as an active player, Ruben moved into the Phillies front office as assistant general manager.

During his 10 years as assistant GM, Ruben was involved in 40-man roster decisions and major league free agent contract negotiations, including those players eligible for salary arbitration. He also aided in the decision-making process of major league players and staff, including trades, player movements and hirings.

The Amaro family (Ruben Jr., his father Ruben Sr. and his late grandfather Santos) were the 2001 winners of the Al Dia Latino Legends Award, given annually to a Hispanic player(s) in Phillies history. In addition to that honor, Ruben Jr. was inducted into the All-American Amateur Baseball Association Hall of Fame in July 2008. He is also a co-founder of the Richie Ashburn Foundation, which provides free baseball camps for 1,100 underprivileged children in the Delaware Valley and awards grants for area schools and colleges. In addition, he serves on the board for the Philadelphia chapter of the YMCA.

Ruben was born on February 12, 1965, in Philadelphia, Pa., and currently lives in Yardley. He has two daughters, Andrea and Sophia. He and his father are the only father-son combination to ever play for the Phillies.

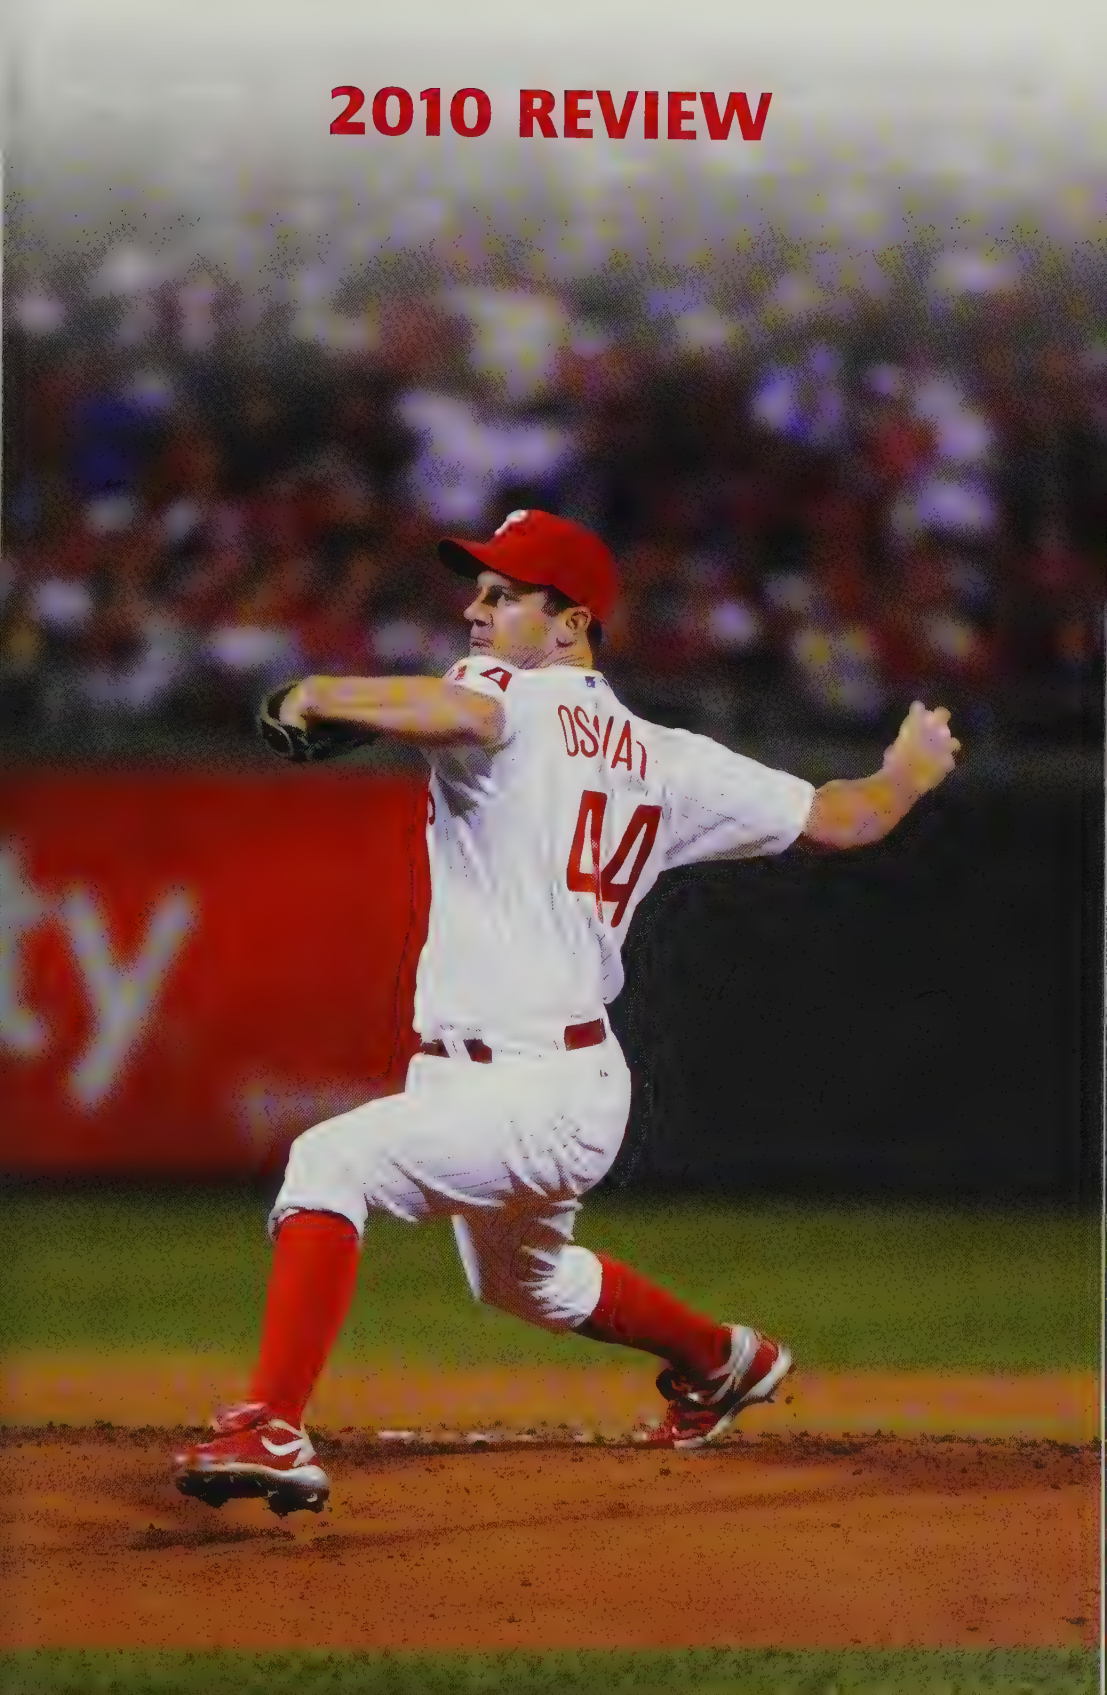
2010 REVIEW



BEST IN BASEBALL

For the first time in franchise history, the Phillies finished with the best record in Major League Baseball at 97-65. The closest team was the Tampa Bay Rays (96-66) and the closest National League club was the San Francisco Giants (92-70). The Phils' 97 wins were tied for the 3rd-most wins in club history, behind the 1976 and 1977 teams, which each won 101 games. The closest the Phillies ever came to having the best record in baseball prior to 2010 were those 101-win teams. Each one fell one win short of the MLB leader; in 1977, the Kansas City Royals won 102 games and in 1976 the Cincinnati Reds won 102 games.

FOURPEAT

On September 27 at Washington, the Phillies clinched their 4th straight National League East division title and 10th overall in franchise history (1976-78, 1980, 1983, 1993, 2007-10). With that win, the Phillies (2007-10) became just the 3rd team in NL history to make at least four consecutive appearances in the postseason; the Atlanta Braves made 14 straight appearances (1991-93, 1995-2005) and the New York Giants made four straight from 1921-24. Since the start of divisional play in 1994, the Phillies' current streak of four consecutive division titles is the longest for any NL team since the Braves won 11 in a row (1995-2005).

A GOOD THING GOIN'

2010 marked the Phillies' 8th consecutive winning season (2003-10). It is the longest streak since the Phillies had a franchise-best nine consecutive winning seasons, 1975-83 – which included two trips to the World Series and a championship – and the 2nd-longest in club history. In the current eight-year span (2003-10), the Phillies have posted a 716-580 (.552) record, which is best among all NL teams and 4th-best in MLB.

DRAMA KINGS

The Phillies finished the 2010 season with a 45-26 (.634) record in games decided by two or fewer runs; their .634 winning percentage was the best among all MLB teams. Philadelphia was a National League-best 29-17 (.630) in one-run games and 16-9 (.640) in games decided by two runs. In games decided by two or fewer runs at Citizens Bank Park in 2010, the Phils went 29-11 (.725); their .725 winning percentage was also best in MLB and their 29 wins were T-1st in MLB with COL and TB. The Phils went 11-6 (.647) in extra innings this season and their 11 wins were tied for the NL lead with CIN and SF which both went 11-8 (.579). Among all MLB teams, only BAL (13-4, .765) had more extra-inning wins in 2010.

SHUTOUTS

The Phillies played in 32 shutouts (21 wins and 11 losses, .656), T-3rd in the majors with SD (20-12) behind LAD (16-17) and SF (17-16) which both played in 33. In club history, the Phillies' 32 shutouts were their most since participating in 36 in the 1969 season (14 wins, 22 losses). Philadelphia's 21 shutout wins (T-4th-most in franchise history) were the most in the majors in 2010 and were the most for the club since 1917 when they had 22. The Phils' 11 shutout losses are their most in a single season since 1998 (also 11). The Phillies were 12-4 in shutout games at home this season (the 16 shutouts were an all-time single-season high at Citizens Bank Park) and 9-7 on the road. Additionally, Roy Halladay started nine of the Phillies' 21 shutout wins and two of their 11 losses.

FOR STARTERS

Phillies starting pitchers led all NL staffs in 2010 in wins (70), winning percentage (.593), CG (14), shutouts (6), innings (1035.1) and fewest walks issued (239). They finished 3rd in ERA (3.55) and 4th in strikeouts (802). The 70 wins by the Phillies starters were their most since the World Championship season of 1980 (70-50) and their most in a season since 1976, when they set a club record with 75 wins by the starting rotation. After Roy Oswalt's acquisition on July 29, Phillies starters combined to go 31-14 (.689), 2.92 ERA (126 ER, 388.0 IP) and the Phillies were 42-19 (.689) in those 61 games. In that span, the starters had 38 quality starts (62%) and pitched 6.0 or more innings 47 times (77%).

BORN TO RUN

For the 4th straight season, the Phillies led all major league teams in stolen base percentage (83.7%, 108-for-129). The Phils' 108 steals in 2010 were 4th-most in the NL. Additionally, the Phillies were successful in a National League-best 20 of their 23 stolen attempts of 3rd base.

GLOVELY

Defensively, the Phillies ranked 4th among all National League teams in 2010 with a .986 fielding percentage. They turned the 5th-most double plays in the NL (158) and committed the 4th-fewest errors (83) in 1456.1 innings (T-2nd-most in NL with SF). The Phillies also recorded 27 outfield assists which ranked 6th among all NL teams.

TURNSTILE TRAFFIC

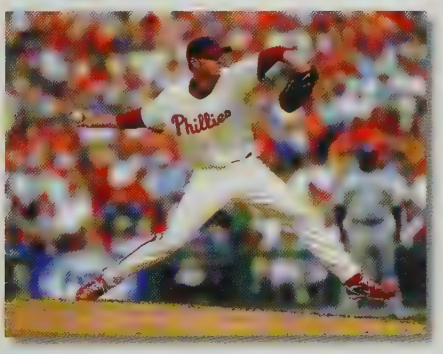
For the 5th straight season, the Phillies set franchise records in home total attendance and average attendance. Through 81 dates at Citizens Bank Park in 2010, the Phillies totaled 3,647,249 for an average of 45,028 per game, both tops among all NL teams (2nd in MLB). For the 1st time in franchise history the Phillies sold out all 81 of their home games and finished the regular season with 123 consecutive sold-out crowds at Citizens Bank Park (since 7/7/09).

SECOND-HALF WINS

In 2010, the Phillies posted a major league-best 50-25 (.667) record in games after the All-Star break. It marked the 1st time since 1983 that the Phils had posted 50 or more victories after the break. Over the past six seasons (2005-10), Phillies manager Charlie Manuel has guided his team to a 268-171 (.610) record in games after the All-Star break. The Phils lead all NL teams in that span in both wins and winning percentage and rank 2nd in the majors, behind NYY (277-166, .625).

AS GOOD AS ADVERTISED

Starter Roy Halladay finished his first season as a Phillie with a 21-10 record and a 2.44 ERA in 33 starts to earn his 2nd career Cy Young Award (AL Cy Young winner in 2003). With his 3rd career 20-win season (2003 & 2008), he became the first Phillie with 20 or more victories in a single season since 1982 when Hall of Famer Steve Carlton went 23-11 and the Phillies' 1st right-hander with 20 wins since 1955 when Hall of Famer Robin Roberts went 23-14. Halladay won a National League-leading 21 games in 2010 and finished tied with CC Sabathia (21-7) for the MLB lead; he's the first Phillies pitcher to lead the league in victories since 1983 (John Denny: 19 wins). Additionally, in his 15 starts against NL East division opponents, Halladay posted a 14-1 record with a 1.61 ERA.



A SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER

The Phillies posted a major league-best 21-6 (.778) record in September. It was their 4th September with 20 or more wins in franchise history and their 21 victories in 2010 – one shy of the club record - were their most in the month since 1983 when they went 22-7 (.759). The Phils began September in 2nd place and 3.0 games behind the Braves and they ended the month in 1st place with a 5.0-game lead. Over the last four seasons (2007-10), the Phillies lead all major league teams in wins and winning percentage in the month of September at 72-38 (.655).

BEASTS OF THE EAST

The Phillies posted a 44-28 (.611) record against their division rivals in 2010 to match their record from the previous season. Only one other National League team had a higher winning percentage against their own division in 2010 (CIN was 49-30, .620, against the NL Central); MIN led all major league teams with a .653 winning percentage (47-25) against the AL Central. Philadelphia finished their 2010 regular season schedule with 25 contests against their division rivals and went 19-6 (.760) in those games. Over the last three seasons (2008-10), the Phillies have posted a 129-87 (.597) record against the NL East.

HISTORIC STREAKS

The Phillies recorded a pair of historic winning streaks in 2010. From September 12-24, they won a season-best 11 straight games. That streak of wins, which all came against NL East opponents, was tied for the 4th-longest in franchise history, matching the club's 11-game win streaks in 1955 and 1983. The Phillies also made history with a string of 12 consecutive wins at home, July 8-August 6. That streak, which was tied for the 3rd-longest in franchise history, was tied for the longest in MLB in 2010 with CWS and was the longest in the seven-year history of Citizens Bank Park. The 12-game home streak included a perfect homestand, July 23-29 (7-0 vs. COL and ARI), a first for the Phils since the 1991 season.

90-SOMETHING

With a win on September 20 vs ATL, Charlie Manuel became the 2nd manager in franchise history to lead his team to three consecutive 90-win seasons, joining Danny Ozark (1976-78). Under Manuel, the Phillies won 92 games in 2008, 93 in 2009 and a career-best 97 last season. 2010 marked the 14th season with 90 or more wins in team history. For Manuel, it is his 5th career 90-win season and 3rd with the Phils (2000-01, 2008-10).

INJURY REPORT

In 2010 the Phillies sent 18 different players to the disabled list for a total of 20 stints. The 18 players on the DL were their most in a single season since 2007 when they also had 18 different players DL'd. They had a total of 23 players go on the DL over the previous two seasons combined (10 players in 2008 and 13 players in 2009).

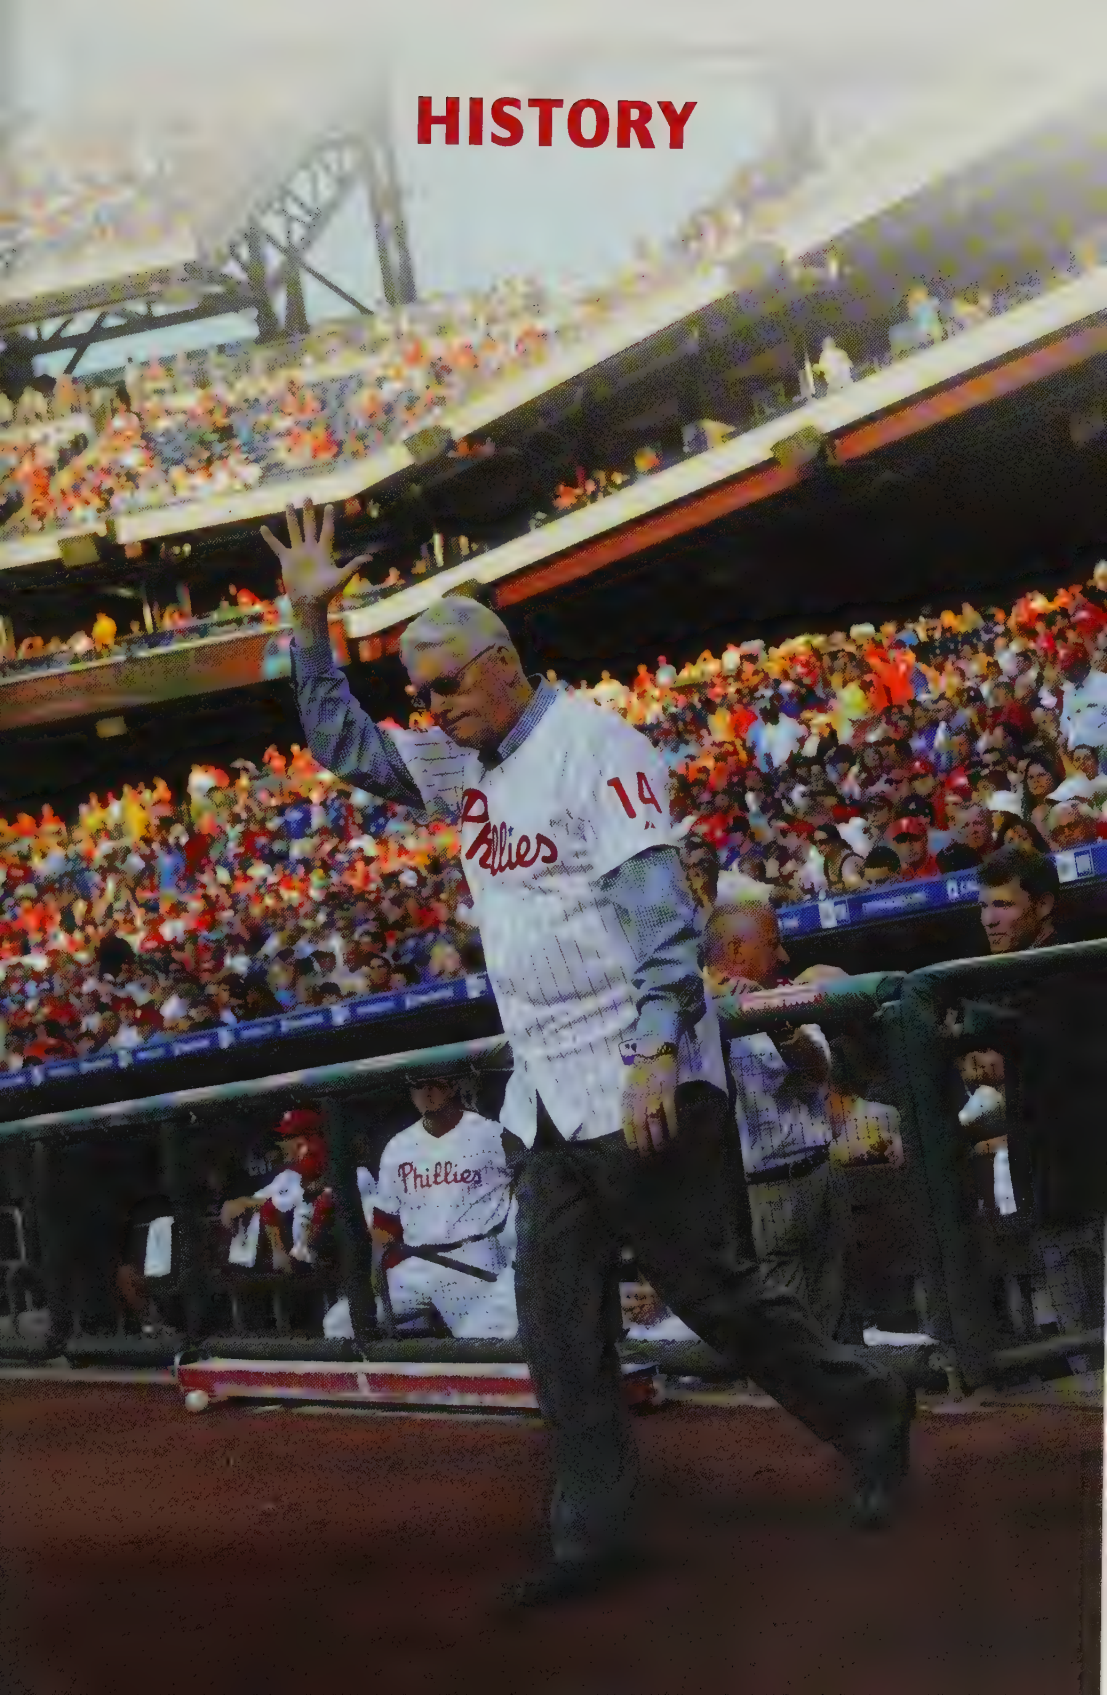
HISTORY



PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

Alfred Reach

PHILLIES FIRST GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,880 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 128 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

Pat Moran

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first President to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was re-named Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games left to play to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on October 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, the parade down Broad Street was attended by an estimated 2 million fans. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

In 2009, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. It was the club's fifth appearance in the Fall Classic in 30 years, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, four games to two.

Last year the Phillies won their fourth consecutive division title after posting a major league-best 97 wins. Fan support reached an all-time high in 2010 with an attendance mark of 3,647,249. All 81 home games were sold out, extending the sellout streak at Citizens Bank Park to 123 games, dating back to 2009.

Homegrown talent was instrumental in the 1950 pennant-winners and the great 1976-83 era. That same formula has provided Phillies fans with the current run of excellence. Jimmy Rollins, Chase Utley, Ryan Howard, Carlos Ruiz, Cole Hamels and Ryan Madson are all products of the Phillies scouting and player development department.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

Game 3 - October 7

With their team trailing, 2-0, Phillies fans unraveled Burt Hooton in the second inning. The right-hander walked four straight batters as the Phillies took a 3-2 lead. Leading, 5-3, after eight innings, the Phillies seemed headed for their second victory. Instead, they sustained the most bitter defeat in Vet history. With two out, the Dodgers tied the game on a controversial call by first base umpire Bruce Froemming. Davey Lopes' grounder kicked off Mike Schmidt's glove to Larry Bowa, who threw to first base for the potential game-ending out. Froemming called Lopes safe; TV replays indicated he was out. Lopes wound up scoring the winning run on Bill Russell's single to center.

Brett Myers won Game 2 for the Phillies with his arm and his bat. Myers, who went 5.0 innings on the mound, became the first pitcher in LCS history to record three hits in a game and the first since 1919 with three hits and three RBI in a postseason game. Brad Lidge struck out the side for his fourth save of the postseason, sending the Phils to Los Angeles with a 2-0 series lead.

With the help of some great defense, Cole Hamels improved to 4-0 in four postseason starts, holding the Rays to one run on five hits in 7.0 innings.

Fifteen years and a ninety-one minute rain delay later, the World Series returned to the City of Brotherly Love. As the second oldest pitcher to start a World Series game, Jamie Moyer rebounded from his first two subpar postseason starts, allowing three runs on five hits in 6.1 innings pitched. A walk-off infield single by Carlos Ruiz against a five-man Rays infield broke a 4-4 tie and gave the Phillies a 2-1 series lead.

Game 5 - October 27

Although it took two days to complete, it was worth the wait as the Phillies won their second world title in franchise history with a 4-3 win over the Rays. Trailing 2-0 after the first inning, the two coldest bats in Tampa's lineup heated up and knotted the game, 2-2, after 5 ½ innings. At that point, heavy rains caused Commissioner Bud Selig to suspend the game – a first in World Series history – for 46 hours. When play resumed on Wednesday, October 29, an RBI single by Pedro Feliz in the 7th inning scored Eric Bruntlett from second base and ended a 28-year title drought for the Phillies and a 25-year drought for the city.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978 and Garry Maddox in 1986. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

PAUL OWENS AWARD

Since 1986 the Phillies have honored the top player and pitcher in their minor league system. The award is named in honor of Paul Owens, who passed away in December 2003 after spending 48 years in the Phillies organization as a scout, farm director, general manager, manager and senior advisor.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Bill Giles

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

RICHIE ASHBURN SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Established in 1998 in honor of the memory of Richie Ashburn, who spent nearly 50 years with the Phillies, the award is given annually to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated the same loyalty, dedication and passion for the game as the award's namesake.

The 2010 winner of the Richie Ashburn Special Achievement Award was Dan Goroff. Dan came to work for the Phillies as a part-time clerk in the ticket office in 1987 and within six months, on October 1, 1987, he was hired as the full-time assistant ticket manager. "Vuk" took great pride in wearing a baseball uniform and playing the game the right way. His dedication to the game and the Phillies was endless.

He spent 30 of his 41 years as a member of the Phillies organization. With 17 years on the coaching staff, he is the longest tenured coach in team history and one of the most respected persons to ever wear a Phillies uniform.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. Toyota is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 15-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, contributions to the Phillies and baseball, character, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their longtime manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

J.G. TAYLOR SPINK AWARD

The Philadelphia media are also represented in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Former Philadelphia Inquirer baseball writer Allen Lewis (1981), Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988), Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992) and Bill Conlin from the Philadelphia Daily News (2011) won the J.G. Taylor Spink Award. The award, named after the founder of The Sporting News, has been voted upon annually by the Baseball Writers' Association of America since 1962 and honors a baseball writer (or writers) "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

LARRY ANDERSEN

The 2011 season is Larry's 14th season in the booth serving as a color analyst for the Phillies' radio broadcasts.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008 he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with the Indians (1975-79), Mariners (1981-82), Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Astros (1986-90), Red Sox (1990) and Padres (1991-92), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known as being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for Jeff Bagwell in August of 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993 and in two League Championship Series, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (33.0 IP), set in 1984. It is also the second-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.2 scoreless innings in 1911.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Seattle, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the 7th round and made his major league debut with them in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton (1997).

Born on May 6, 1953, in Portland, Ore., Larry currently resides in Philadelphia, Pa. He has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase.

PHILLY BROADCASTERS FOUNDATION

Formed in 2009, the Philly Broadcasters Foundation began as a means of honoring the late Harry Kalas. His longtime colleagues and broadcast partners - Larry Andersen, Chris Wheeler, Gary Matthews, Scott Franzke, Tom McCarthy and Jim Jackson - formed the foundation in the hopes of awarding scholarships each year to aspiring broadcasters. Instead of just a simple scholarship program, the foundation was also formed with a vision of future charitable endeavors designed to impact the Philadelphia region. In the coming year, the members of the Phillies broadcast team will invite other broadcasters from Philadelphia to join the foundation and form a charitable plan for the future. For more information on the Philly Broadcasters Foundation, log on to phillybroadcasters.org.

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands
EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows
SKIN: Bright green fur
PHYSICAL DEFECTS: Overweight, clumsy feet, extra-long beak, curled-up red tongue, gawking neck, slight case of body odor.

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot made it all the way to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., where in 2002 it became part of a permanent exhibit. The Phanatic received another honor in 2008 when it was recognized by Forbes Magazine as the #1 sports mascot.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 16 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made worldwide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997, 1998 and 2002) and Australia (1997 and 1999). Tom has written two Phillies books and nine children's books and developed a reading program (Be A Phanatic About Reading) that encourages kids to read every day.

The 45-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

PHILLIES TELEVISION NETWORK

The Phillies enter their 14th season in 2011 with the all-sports cable network Comcast SportsNet (CSN). CSN will carry 103 games, in addition to three spring training games, while The Comcast Network will broadcast three regular season games and four spring contests, including the final exhibition game against the Pirates at Citizens Bank Park. CSN will continue to enhance the fan experience with increased clarity of the action, as it produces all Phillies games in high definition from its state-of-the-art mobile production facility.

PhI17 is in its third stint as the home of the Phillies, having carried the club's games from 1971-82 and again from 1993-98. The station will broadcast three exhibition games and 45 games during the regular season, along with the 30-minute show W.B. Mason Behind the Pinstripes before every Sunday afternoon telecast. The show is hosted by Scott Palmer, Phillies Director of Public Affairs and a former sportscaster and news anchor.

Of the 162 Phillies games, 151 will be broadcast locally, with nine other games being picked up nationally by FOX. The Phils have also been selected for two games on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball (May 1 vs. the Mets and May 8 vs. the Braves), with the potential of three additional appearances during the season.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Phillies™
AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Phillies family – from the players, coaches and their wives to the alumni, ballgirls and front office staff – takes great pride in giving back to the community. The entire Phillies organization teams up annually to host a variety of special events and fundraisers, serve dinners to feed the homeless, and hold clothing drives and auctions. Additionally, the Phillies donate game tickets, autographed memorabilia and merchandise to support local charitable organizations and fundraisers.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the charitable arm of the Phillies organization, serving Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware and areas near the Phillies' minor league affiliates. Through a year-long campaign dozens of grants are awarded each year primarily to local charities serving a wide variety of needs, such as disadvantaged youth, homelessness and fighting disease and caring for its victims.

Several events are held to raise money for the Phillies Charities Community Fund. Due to strong fan support, events including the Phillies Phestival, Baseball 101 Clinic and Luncheon for Women, auctions and a 5K Run contribute largely to the fund. In 2010, nearly $1.2 million in grants were awarded to dozens of local, charitable organizations. The 2010 Phillies Phestival raised $801,615 to help fund patient services and research in the fight against ALS (also known as Lou Gehrig's disease). Since the relationship began in 1984 over $11.8 million has been donated to the Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the ALS Association.

Phillies Charities contributes to several other organizations including Bethesda Project homeless shelter, the Richie Ashburn Baseball Foundation, the Police Athletic League, Philadelphia Futures and Clearwater for Youth.

The Phillies are proud of the contributions that individual players make each year through visits in the community, special meet-and-greets with patients and their own foundations. In 2010 six players hosted charity events and combined raised nearly $1.2 million for their respective charities and benefited the Philadelphia-area community. Additionally, several players developed charitable ticket programs which provided game tickets, concessions and merchandise on more than 50 occasions for community groups throughout the season.

- Roy Halladay's Doc's Box hosted a variety of children's groups and shelters from the Philadelphia area.
- Cole Hamels held Pitching Clinics to raise funds for The Hamels Foundation's support of local schools.
- Raúl Ibañez hosted homeless youth from Covenant House Pennsylvania and Project H.O.M.E. through Ibañez Team Resurgence.
- Ryan Howard raised $116,000 during his Celebrity Servers event which benefitted disadvantaged youth through The Howard Family Foundation.
- Brad Lidge hosted patients from The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia through Lidge's Legion.
- Jimmy Rollins' Celebrity BaseBOWL tournament benefited the Arthritis Foundation of Eastern PA through the Rollins Family Foundation. JRoll's Aces brings children from disadvantaged areas who are excelling in the classroom to a game.
- J.C. Romero brought a variety of Hispanic community groups and at-risk youth to games through Romero's Rookies.
- Chase Utley's All-Star Animals Casino Night benefitted the Pennsylvania SPCA. Chase's Champs provided tickets to patients from The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and St. Christopher's Hospital.
- Shane Victorino's Celebrity Golf Tournament and All-Star Celebrity Fashion Show raised funds for the Shane Victorino Foundation and will be directed to the Nicetown Boys & Girls Clubs' renovation project. His Flyin' Hawaiian All-Stars program hosted kids from the Boys and Girls Clubs of Philadelphia during games.
- Ryan Madson and Carlos Ruiz supported Philadelphia Futures' Get in the Game charity bowling tournament which raised $160,000 for the Sponsor-A-Scholar Program to help low-income students achieve their dream of a college education.

These efforts will continue and grow in 2011. Joining the fold will be Cliff Lee, who will host a variety of local children's charities, and Hamels' Heroes to honor local military veterans.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The players' wives also lend their time and efforts to support several charities. They meet with patients suffering with ALS and participate in the Phillies Phestival each year. Over the past several years, the Phillies Wives have raised over $165,000 for the Pennsylvania SPCA to provide shelter and bring awareness to animal cruelty. This includes a recent pet calendar and several Save a Pet at the Park events. Additionally, the Phillies Wives introduced From Our Home to Yours, A Collection of Phillies Recipes with proceeds benefiting homeless teenagers of Covenant House Pennsylvania and held several Pro-Pack Auctions, raffles and Mystery Ball sales to benefit charities including The Food Trust, The Mary E. Walker House, the Linda Creed Breast Cancer Foundation and Camp No Worries.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. Phillies Phundamentals is an after-school/summer camp program that makes learning fun by using the theme of baseball to teach and reinforce academic skills. Started by the club in January 2001 and run in nearly 20 inner-city recreation centers, Phillies Phundamentals educates over 2,500 children aged 6-13 annually. During the 2010 season the Phillies Extraordinary Scholars program was introduced to honor students excelling in the classroom and contributing to their community through service. Since 2004 Be a Phanatic About Reading has been encouraging children in kindergarten through eighth grade to read for a minimum of 15 minutes a day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. During the 2010/11 school year nearly 100,000 students will read with the Phanatic. Through his program the Phanatic will visit nearly 30 schools excelling in reading. In addition to these visits, the Phanatic makes more than 400 donated community appearances annually.

Also acting as ambassadors for the Phillies both on and off the field are the Phillies Ballgirls, comprised of educated, athletic and energetic women. In 2010 they made over 150 community appearances including visits to help further the Phillies' commitment to develop youth baseball and softball. The Jr. RBI and RBI Leagues provide underprivileged youth aged 5-18 in Greater Philadelphia the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball by teaching the game rules as well as instilling the values of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs, which provide uniforms and equipment, engage more than 8,000 boys and girls annually, making it one of the largest Jr. RBI/RBI League programs in the country. In September 2010 the Phillies, Major League Baseball and the City of Philadelphia announced that Philadelphia will be the home of an MLB Urban Youth Academy. Located at the Richie Ashburn Field Complex in FDR Park and at the Marian Anderson Recreation Center, the MLB Urban Youth Academy will provide free, year-round baseball and softball instruction and educational programming to underserved children in the city.

Phillies fans are incredibly supportive of the work being done in the community and many charitable efforts are made possible by their generosity. Over the course of the 2010 season fans took part in many collections held at Citizens Bank Park to benefit local nonprofits. Fans donated new and gently used books to benefit local literacy organizations, helped collect hundreds of pieces of baseball equipment for Pitch In For Baseball, donated toys for the animals of the Pennsylvania SPCA and were a big part of putting smiles on the faces of countless children by donating toys that were distributed to A.I. duPont Hospital for Children, the Police Athletic League, Women Against Abuse and Children's Crisis Treatment Center.

Phillies RED GOES GREEN

The Phillies' award-winning "Red Goes Green" program at Citizens Bank Park is in partnership with ARAMARK and Global Spectrum.

- To offset the carbon footprint created by the team's utility power usage at the ballpark, the Phillies – for the fourth year in a row – have purchased 20 million kilowatt-hours of Renewable Energy Certificates (RECs) certified by Green-e Energy for the calendar year. An annual purchase of 100% renewable energy is equivalent to the planting of 100,000 trees. The Phillies are the first MLB team to launch such an initiative.
- The Phillies Red Goes Green Team – led by the Phillies Ballgirls and consisting of volunteers from local organizations – collects recyclable bottles throughout the ballpark during home games.
- Phil the Can is the "spokescan" for the Red Goes Green program. Phil is an interactive robot, presented by Waste Management, who speaks with fans and promotes awareness on ways to go green.
- There are 35 oversized, 80-gallon recyclable containers placed throughout the ballpark for fans to utilize and aid in recycling efforts.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)... A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.
No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waivers: Major league waivers must be secured for all major league trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

RAIN RULES

The right to postpone the playing of a game is vested in the home club with the exception of the final series between two clubs beginning on or after June 1, at which time the responsibility shifts to the Umpire-in-Chief. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief has sole authority to determine if a game should be suspended, when it can be resumed or if it should be terminated because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions. The Official Playing Rules provide that when a game has been temporarily suspended, umpires must wait at least 30 minutes before calling the game.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

2011 MEDIA INFORMATION

BALLPARK ENTRANCE
All media should enter Citizens Bank Park at the Staff & Media Entrance located on Darien Street (east side of the ballpark).

CLUBHOUSES
Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM
The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's post-game media conference, will be held in this room.

PRESS BOX
The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Workroom and library, is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

ELEVATOR
An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY
A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS
Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.

PHOTO WORKROOM
The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

SMOKING
By City of Philadelphia ordinance, smoking is only permitted in designated areas in the vicinity of the First Base Gate, Third Base Gate, Left Field Gate and the East Suite and Club Entrance.

MEDIA WORKROOM
Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Workroom that contains a fax machine, copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pre-game. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the workroom. See a Baseball Communications representative for access to the workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

CREDENTIALS
Working press credentials or Baseball Writers Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room).

LOST CREDENTIALS
Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to make a $25 donation to Phillies Charities, Inc., prior to being issued a new credential.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS
Both clubhouses are open from 3:35 p.m. to 6:05 p.m. (for 7:05 p.m. games) in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations. The Phillies clubhouse is closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice. For day games, the clubhouse is also closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice and/or 45 minutes prior to game time. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Members of the media are welcome when the clubhouses are open. Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY
The manager is available following every Phillies home game in the Media Interview Room. For 7:05 p.m. games, the manager is available in the Phillies dugout at 4:00 p.m. There is no formal pre-game availability on day games.

PRESS BOX SEATING
Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

INTERNET/PHONE
Wireless internet is available throughout the Press Box area and in the Photo Workroom. There is an ample supply of complimentary high-speed ethernet lines available in the Press Box as well as in the Photo Workroom. If needed, ethernet cables are available to purchase on-site for $10 (cash only) at each home game. There is also an ample supply of pool phones available in the Press Box.
